Source: File sample from Davy Jones. Use new account form as a starting point for information
Purpose: Sample of sales files to determine: suitability of investment, documentation is accurate, administration of the file, note adverse trends, or target a specific customer base.
Summary: Documentation & file adminstration needs some work. Improvement from the last audit. Consistency in file set-up needs work. No adverse trends noted. No products or customers are sales targets. Suitability is appropriate given customer information. Going forward, look at Yahoo Finance wit ticker symbol to find information about a stock.
